Happy Valentine's Day

Kamloops Regular Sale Feb 11, 2025

Despite a lighter run of cattle this week, the quality remained top-notch as always. Cold weather kept numbers under 200 head for the day, and with global uncertainty in the air, the market felt some pressure. However, we're still holding at record levels. Bryan and Sidsel Gunderson brought a powerful set of steer calves that made a real impression in the ring. Their 793 lbs steers commanded 391.00. while their 685 lbs raced to 434.00. Greg Goodanetz's 705 lbs steers follow suit, trading at 406.00. The Limestone Charolais crew came to town with some standout white heifers, the 728 lb heifers moved at 370.00., with their 674 lb sisters climbing to 404.00. From Rock Creek, John & Julie Lindquist sold a strong group of 1,205 lb heifers at 260.00., while the Deneaults from Savona topped the butcher bull trade with a powerful 2,290 lb bull that brought 223.00 ringing the till at $5,106.70. On the cow side Clint Moore had a whopping 2140 lb young cow bring 194.00. Dan Summers saw $4,250 for his fall pairs, while his bred cows brought $3,000. Butcher and feeder cows ranged from 168.00 to 194.00, with good Holstein cows averaging 136.00. Looking ahead, we've got a great lineup of sales on the horizon. February 25th will see action in Kamloops, followed by February 27th in Williams Lake, then on to Vanderhoof on the 28th. With quality cattle and strong demand, these are shaping up to be great sales. See you then!
